

Martino invited the whole village to their wedding. Everyone danced, sang, ate ... so they were all very happy. A year later they became parents to a girl.

They lived happily ever after. Today people say that the Hagor Qim was built by Giants.

But that's not true! Some of people even say that the gods were playing cards and one God got so angry that he made an earthquake. That's even worse!

Mai Valenčić 8.B

Hagar Qim

The story of Hagar Qim takes place on the island of Malta. The people who lived there were called Hagar. But there wasn't just one temple, there were hundreds of them. Hagar were a community that lived in simple houses.

Their lives were full of action. Every day they went hunting for food like fish, hares and sometimes even fruit. In the village of Hagar Qim, lived a man called Martiño. Martiño was famous there because of his generous acts and he helped people a lot.

Everybody liked him especially one woman and he liked her too. Woman's name was Leyla. Leyla was a beautiful, young singer that everybody loved. One day those two met by the sea. Leyla was sitting on a rock and Martiño walked by. Martiño and Leyla stared at each other for some time and then they talked.

Martiño gave her a rose and Leyla was happy with it. The story goes on and one day Martiño they were getting married.